WELCOME TO HYATT PLACE

We are concerned with your personal safety and the security of your property. Please familiarize yourself with the following suggestions and information.

DOORS

The hotel has provided your room with a safety latch and a push-button or dead bolt lock. We suggest fastening the safety device and double-locking your door when you are in your room.

ADMITTANCE

It is safe to first identify individuals through the security viewer before admitting them to your room.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES

Please do not leave money or valuables in your room. Safety deposit boxes are available at no charge. State laws limit the liability of the hotel for the loss or damage of personal property.

IN THE EVENT OF FIRE

Please familiarize yourself with the location of hallway fire exits, alarms, and extinguishers. In the unlikely event of a fire or smoke detection, dial the emergency number or notify the hotel operator, then follow these basic procedures:

DAILY RATES FOR ROOMS
SINGLE	from $_____ to $_____
DOUBLE	from $_____ to $_____
EXTRA PERSONS (each) from $_____ to $_____
*Subject to applicable taxes.
CHECK-OUT TIME IS _____

1. Take your key.
2. Test your door for heat before opening. If the hallway is colder, exit by stairwell to the street.
4. Do not use elevators.

Should the doorway be warm or the hallway impassable:

1. Place wet towels at the base of the door.
2. Notify the operator, giving your name and room number.
3. Turn off your air conditioner or heater to keep smoke from entering the room.
4. Do not break windows.
5. Stay low to avoid inhaling smoke.

IF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND THE FIRE SAFETY INSTRUCTIONS, CALL THE OPERATOR

ILLINOIS
RULES AND REGULATIONS
NOTICE is hereby given of the provisions of Section 13-302 of the Illinois Revised Statutes, which are in effect as follows:
A. An innkeeper who maintains a fireproof safe and gives notice by posting in a conspicuous place in the office or in the room of each guest that money, jewelry, documents, and other articles of small size and unusual value may be deposited in the safe, in not liable for loss of or injury to any such article not deposited in the safe, which is not the result of his own act.
B. An innkeeper may refuse to receive for deposit from a guest articles exceeding a total value of five hundred dollars, and unless otherwise agreed to in writing shall not be liable in an amount in excess of five hundred dollars for loss or damage to or negligence of the innkeeper.
C. An innkeeper shall not be liable for loss of or damage to merchandise, baggage or merchandise for sale displayed by a guest unless the guest gave prior written notice of having and displaying the merchandise or merchandise in a sample, and acknowledged receipt of such notice, but in no event shall liability for such loss or damage exceed one hundred dollars unless it results from the fault or negligence of the establishment.
D. The liability of an innkeeper to a guest shall be limited to a check or draft for property delivered to this establishment to be held in a safe room or baggage room and to be received from the property deposited in a parcel or checkroom.

NOTICE is hereby further given of the provisions of Section 13-302.1, and 13-302.2, Illinois Revised Statutes, as amended, which provide as follows:
Section 13-302.1. Upon a baggage and property of guests, hotel, inn, boarding house, lodging house, apartment house and auto camps, except where there is a clear marking on the property of their guests, boarders or lodgers, brought therein by their guests, boarders or lodgers, for charges that for accommodation, board, lodging, or room rent and things furnished at the request of such guests, boarders or lodgers, with the right to possession of the baggage or other property until the charges are paid.
Section 13-302.2. Sale of property notice.
A. When baggage or other property comes into the possession of a person entitled to a lien as provided by Section 13-302 and remains unclaimed, or the charges remain unpaid for a period of four months, the person may proceed to sell the baggage or property at public auction, and from the proceeds to pay the charges, a storage and a expense of advertising the sale.
B. The sale shall not be made until the expiration of four weeks from the first publication of notice of the sale, published in a newspaper once a week for four consecutive weeks. The notice shall contain a description of each piece of property, the name of the owner, if known, the name of the person holding the property, and the time and place of the sale. If the indebtedness is not satisfied at public sale, the notice may be given by posting at not less than three public places located at the place where the hotel, inn, boarding house, lodging house, apartment house or auto camp is located.
C. Any baggage from the sale not claimed by the rightful owner within one month from the day of sale shall be paid into the treasury of the county in which held the general fund of the county.
NOTICE is hereby further given of the provisions of Section 13-302.1, and 13-302.2, Illinois Revised Statutes, as amended, which provide as follows:
Section 13-302.1. Drawing check or draft or an account or insufficient account with intent to defraud, cost action, definition of check, prima facie evidence.
A. A person who, for himself or for another, willfully with intent to defraud, makes, or signs, delivers or delivers to another person or persons a check or draft or a bank or money order for payment of money, knowing at the time of such making, drawing, signing or delivery, that he is liable to the holder of such check or draft for the amount of such check or draft together with costs and reasonable attorney's fees as allowed by the court on the date of time and effort expended by such attorney on behalf of the plaintiff?
B. The word "draft" as used in this section shall be construed to be an express agreement with the bank or depository for payment of the check or draft.

C. Proof that at the time of presentment, the maker, issuer or drawer did not have sufficient funds with the bank or depository, and that he is held within banking hours after receiving notice of nonpayment or dishonor to pay the check or draft is prima facie evidence of intent to defraud.
D. Where a check, draft or order is presented on the ground of insufficiency of funds or credit, the notice of nonpayment thereof shall be admissible as proof of presentment, payment and protest and shall be prima facie evidence of the insufficiency of funds or credit with the bank or depository, or person, or firm or corporation.
E. "Notice," as used in this section, means notice given to the person entitled to receive a check, draft or order. Such notice in writing may be given by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and postage prepaid to the United States mail, to the person at his address as it appears on such check or draft.
F. Nothing in this section shall be applicable to any or more checks or drafts payable to order or to bearer.
Section 13-302.2. Theft, classification.
A. A person commits a theft if, without lawful authority, such person knowingly:
1. Controls property of another with the intent to deprive him of such property; or
2. Controls property of another for use, services or property of another entrusted to the defendant or the defendant's possession for a limited, authorized term of use; or
3. Obtains property or services of another by means of any fraudulent misrepresentation with intent to deprive him of such property or services; or
4. Comes into control of, finds, holds or misappropriates property of another under circumstances providing the means of inquiry as to the true owner and appropriate such property to his own or another's use without reasonable efforts to notify the true owner; or
5. Controls property of another knowing or having reason to know that the property was stolen; or
6. Obtains services known to the defendant to be indebted by the provider without paying or an agreement to pay such compensation or to divert another's services to his own or another's benefit without authority to do so.
B. The amount set forth in Section 13-302.5 shall apply to the presentment under the provisions of subsection A, paragraph 5 of this section.
C. Theft of property or services with a value of more than one thousand dollars in a class 3 felony. Theft of property or services with a value of more than one hundred dollars but not more than one thousand dollars in a class 4 felony. Theft of any property or services valued above hundred dollars or less in a class 2 misdemeanor or theft of any property or services with the person of another or a credit record or a financial, in which case the theft is a class 6 felony.
